WELL DONE.

Brother Stephen Passes Peacetully Away Atter Long and Useful Lite.

Made Happy Betore Death by Benediction From Holy Father.

Was the Virtual Founder of Famed St. Xavier's College.

HERE OVER HALF A CENTURY

Old men, young men and boys through the city and numbered in the thousands, were deeply grieved though not surprised Tuesday when they learned that Brother Stephen, aged eighty-seven years and the oldest member of the Xavarian Brotherhood in the world, virtual founder of St Xavier's College in Louisville, and one of the pioneer members of the order in this country, died of the infirmities of age at his room at the college on Broadway, near Second His illness dated back to last June, when he was prostrated by the heat. Five weeks ago his condition became so serious that he was forced to relinquish his duties as Secretary and Treasurer of the college. Brother Stephen received the benediction of Pope Pius Thursday from Mgr. Diomede Falconio, upon the occasion of the latter's visit to the college. He had expressed the wish that he re-ceive the Papal blessing from the apostolic delegate before death. Brother Stephen had been in Louisville fifty-four years of the the fiftysix years he had spent in this country He was born April 6, 1825, at Attendorn, near Muenster, Westphalia, Germany. He went to Muenster early in life after having been graduated from high school, and there, while plying the trade of a tailor, conceived a plan for the betterment of young men a prey to the allurements of the He associated himself with others in the work; organizing what is now known as the Koping Institute, similar to the Young Men's Institute in America. Soon the society extended throughout the German Empire, and to other European countries. Brother Stephen, his work accomplished, withdrew from the work and Father Koping, for whom it was named, too' charge. At the age of twenty-three years Brother Stephen, or Adolph Sommers, resolved to join the Xavarian Brotherhood, which had been founded nine fore at Bruges, Belgium, by was admitted to the order December 8, 1848. BUSY DAYS.

Papal Delegate Visits Sev eral Local Catholic institution.

The Most Rev. Diomede Falconio Apostolic Delegate to the United States, spent two busy days in Louisville before returning to Washington Friday. The Papal delegate was me at the Union Station by the Rev. Father Francis Felton, who accompanied him in an automobile to the Bishop's residence. Later in the morning Mgr. Falconio went to St Xavier's College. While there he bestowed the Papal benediction on the students of the college and later delivered a short address, urging the necessity of diligence in study, saying that success was sure to crown persevering effort. Bishop O'Donaghue also made a short talk. At noon the Apostolic Delegate was the guest of honor at a banquet given at the Bishop college. Accompanied by O'Donaghue and several priests Mgr. Falconio went to the Sacred Heart Academy. The trip was made in an automobile and after going over the institution the Papal delegate returned to Bishop O'Donaghue's house. Bishop C. P. Maes, of Covington, who returned from Bardstown with Mgr. Falconia, left Louisville in the afternoon for Covington.

Monsignor Falconio celebrated his

FALL MEET.

Classiest Horses in America Now at Churchill Downs.

With the fleetest and classiest racers in America entered in the stake events of the Churchill Downs' eighteen-day meeting, which begins next Monday, it may be stated with assurance that the greatest fall season of racing ever known to these parts is in prospect. The feature on the opening day will be the St. Leger Handicap, for twoyear-olds and upward, $1,000 added, at a mile and one-sixteenth. The Golden Rod Stakes, for two-year-olds, $1,000 added, at six furlongs, will be run on Thursday, September 28. On Saturday, September 30, the Falls City Handicap, for three-yearolds and upward, $1,000 added, at one mile and one furlong will be decided. Thursday, October 5, the Cherokee Stakes will be run. This is for threeyear-olds and upward, $1,000 added, at one mile and twenty yards. Saturday, October 7, will be run the most valuable race of 1911-the Kentucky Endurance Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, $3,000 added by the Louisville Racing Association, and a gold cup worth $1,000 donated by the distance is four miles

The Shawnee Handicap, for twoyear-olds, $1,000 added, at six furlongs, will be run on October 14. The Iroquois Handicap, for two-year-olds, $1,000 added, at six furlongs, will be run on October 14.

With practically every turf star on this continent eligible for these events it is certain that the keenest interest prevails among turf followers throughout the length and breadth of this country, and that when the curtain goes up here all admirers of the thoroughbred will be watching.

CHICAGO.

Hibernians Will Dedicate Emmet Memorial Hall.

On Sunday evening, October

the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Chicago will informally dedicate with impressive ceremonies its splendid building, known as the Emmet Memorial Hall, located at Ogden avenue, Leavitt and Taylor streets. About one year ago the cornerstone of this magnificent structure laid by James J. Regan, National President, assisted by Joseph Devlin, the National President of the order in Ireland, together with the Illinois State and county officers. The Hibernians of Chicago are very proud of this building, dedicated as it is to the memory land's illustrious martyr, Emmet, and naturally are leaving nothing undone to make the dedication one of the grandest affairs in the history of the Irish race in that city. It is the intention of the committee having the matter in Minneapolis, charge to invite the National offi-

Efforts are being made by the Tennessee State officers to organize divisions in Chattanooga and Jackson. Nashville, Memphis and Knox-ville are the only Tennessee cities that have divisions.

Through a misunderstanding no tice was not officially given of the regular quarterly meeting for last Sunday. As there is nothing par-ticular transpiring the meeting will be postponed until December.

Rev. Father Clark, thanking the incinnati members for their worl at the annual picnic for St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum, was more than pleased with the returns from Hibernian booth, amounting to $539.

Division 4 meets Monday night and President Hennessy expects every member present. They will hear reports from the County Board, and may also act on the com-ing visit of National President Regan.

It may interest the members large to know that Col. John P. He is a thorough Irishman in all things. Rumor has it that Col. Sullivan will interesting and entertaining story of the Sunny South before the war. The heroine Lisa is a white girl high parentage, but it is in the admirably created mystery with which she has surrounded her birth and the intricate circumstances which throw her into slavery that the author has won the admiration of the theater-goer. In "The White Slave" there is a young love romance which develops through many exciting and pathetic scenes. The story is always dramatic, but never goes beyond the pale of probability. escape of Lisa and her lover from the plantation at Osceola, the destruction of the Belle Creole in mid-stream, and the capture of the 'ugitives on Red Devil's Island are eatures of the play, while the cast lected for this elaborate revival of "The White Slave" is in probability the best since the original produc-

AVENUE THEATER.

"A Fugitive From Justice," melodrama both thrilling and pre-tentious, will be the next attraction at the Avenue Theater. There are twelve scenes in the four acts and the situations are of the strenuous sort and there is just enough comedy intermingled to relieve the tension. The locale of the drama is the Mexican border and this of course calls for characters common to that region. Therefore the cow-boy, the Indian, the greaser, the miner and the tenderfoot are all brought into play. The cast is big one and it is assured that will be found very satisfactory. COLONELS NEAR END.
